*Annual Dinner - September 14, 2022 (Time & Location TBD)

2022 Managers & Secretaries Meetings – In effort to increase attendance and participation, the QVCOG Managers and Secretaries Meetings will be returning to a “permanent” meeting location in 2022 (Emsworth Borough Building, 171 Center Avenue, Pittsburgh, PA 15202). Meetings will occur on the fourth Wednesday of the month at noon. In order to ensure universal access meetings will continue to be simulcast over Zoom, though in-person attendance for these meetings is strongly encouraged.

GIS “Roundtable” – On December 15th at 10:30 a.m. the QVCOG will host a GIS roundtable at the Leet Township Building (194 Ambridge Avenue, Ambridge, PA 15003). This event will be open to both in-person and virtual attendance. The new QVCOG GIS Zoning Map will be a focus of discussion. Additionally, participants will have an opportunity to discuss their past/present use of the platform as well as their vision for GIS mapping moving forward. The demonstration/discussion will be facilitated by Matt Mercurio of Civic Mapper.

Joint Police Service Request – On November 16, 2021 officials from Haysville Borough, Glenfield Borough, Glen Osborne Borough, Sewickley Borough, and Senator Devlin Robinson convened at the Sewickley Borough Building to discuss a joint request for Police Services for Glenfield and Haysville Boroughs. The group had a productive discussion on the topics of community policing, Route 65 traffic safety, and overall funding strategies. It is anticipated that Haysville and Glenfield will submit a joint request for services to Sewickley Borough in January of 2022.

Route 65 Study – Final Analysis & Recommendations – On January 26, 2022 members of Traffic 21 (Carnegie Mellon University) & Michael Baker International will present the final report for the Route 65 Study. It is anticipated that the presentation will include a comprehensive summary of the report as well as a list of recommendations moving forward. All are welcome to attend and participate in the event which will be held at the Sewickley Public Library (500 Thorn Street, Sewickley, PA 15143) beginning at 7:00 p.m. The meeting will be simulcast over Zoom for those unable to attend in-person. A condensed version of the presentation will be provided to the QVCOG Board of Directors at their January 19th Regular Meeting.
